INVENTORY SALE

During the inventory, beginning February 1st, many articles will be brought out that we shall dispose of at any price that is low enough to make a quick sale. All winter goods will be left marked at the sale prices until closed out.

Fur Coats

The colder weather and lower prices have started the sale of these coats and if you want to secure a fur coat at a lower price than you will probably ever have a chance to again don't delay your purchase.

Damask, Crash, Cotton

All short lengths will be closed out at sale prices.

Linens

While all linens will be marked to regular prices if you have not already bought a good supply you can probably buy them, at the regular prices, less than anyone will be able to sell them in a sale next January.

Cottons

Because of the extremely low price of raw cotton January 1st, we shall not be obliged to advance our prices to the high prices of last year, at least while our present stock of cotton lasts, raw cotton is already over two cents a pound higher
